A celebration of the legacy of St. Francis de Sales, Patron of DeSales University

Monday, January 19
Celebrating the Christian Humanist
The Baranzano Society on Bioethics Public Forum
featuring Prof. Peter Augustine Lawler,
Member of the DeSales University President’s Council on Bioethics
White Pavilion, University Center, 7:30 p.m.
Co-sponsored by the Intercollegiate Studies Institute

Sunday, January 18
Celebrating the Bishop of Geneva
Mass of St. Francis de Sales
Guest Celebrant and Homilist:
Msgr. Stewart Swetland, S.T.D.
Vice President, Mount Saint Mary’s Seminary, Emmitsburg, M.D.
Connelly Chapel, 8:00 p.m.

Tuesday, January 20
Celebrating the Spiritual Director
Literature Roundtable
400th anniversary of Francis de Sales’ Introduction to the Devout Life with Prof. Joanne McKeown, author Bernard Bangley and Fr. Don Heet, OSFS.
White Pavilion, University Center, 7:30 p.m.
Co-sponsored by the Oblates of St. Francis de Sales

Wednesday, January 21
Celebrating the Patron of Journalists
Media Town Hall
Media & Social Communication
Raymond Arroyo, journalist, author, producer, and news director for EWTN.
Commonwealth Room, University Center 7:30 p.m.

Thursday, January 22
Celebrating the Doctor of the Church
The R. Wayne Kraft Memorial Lecture
by Michael Novak, G.F. Jewett Scholar in Religion, Philosophy, & Public Policy at the American Enterprise Institute for Public Policy Research
White Pavilion, University Center, 8:00 p.m.

Heritage Week at DeSales University celebrates the legacy of our patron saint by highlighting those facets of his life that correspond with academic areas in which faith and culture continue to be engaged in today’s world.

Missionary preacher, ecumenical reformer, bishop of Geneva, renowned spiritual director, author of religious classics, founder of a religious order, patron of the deaf ... the exemplary life of ST. FRANCIS DE SALES (1567-1622) remains a spiritual treasure in the history of the Church.

For more information, please call 610.282.1100, ext. 1244, or visit www.desales.edu/salesian