Television Series

talk-show format for discussion of contemporary issues in bioethics

October 31, 2005

The Healthcare Legacy of Pope John Paul II

FORMAT:

The television production will be 30-60 minute program. The show will consist of a moderator's interview, with 3-4 guest experts, followed by dialogue with the studio audience.

GUEST PANELISTS:

J. Brian Benestad, Ph.D. -- Professor of Theology/Religious Studies at the University of Scranton (PA)

George Isajiw, M.D. -- executive committee officer of the World Federation of Catholic Medical Associations

AUDIENCE:

Participation in the video-taping is by invitation only. The studio audience is limited to 40 persons, to be invited by members of the Society. Taping begins at 7:30pm, at which time doors must be closed to any audience members.