HISTORY

In the Fall of 2000, a group of concerned members of Holy Spirit Lutheran Church met to consider how to address the state of ethical conduct in society. From those conversations came the Interfaith Coalition on Ethics in the Workplace, which was incorporated in July 2001.

In an effort to expand its offerings and improve day-to-day management, this not-for-profit corporation became a wholly-owned subsidiary of DeSales University on January 1, 2006. The policies and programs of the Forum are determined by its own Board of Directors, while management of the Forum’s operations is provided by the Salesian Center for Faith & Culture.

MISSION

The Forum seeks to provide opportunities for people to come together for study, reflection, conversation, and action on ethical issues in the workplace.

PROGRAMS & ACTIVITIES

Ethics Breakfasts – quarterly meetings featuring a guest speaker on a topic of current controversy or concern, along with table discussions

Ethics Education – community experiences geared toward students at various levels (undergraduate, and graduate), including collaboration with the Fleming Institute for Business Ethics at DeSales University

Ethics Communications – presentations, panel discussions, and speaker series focusing on current events in the realm of business ethics

Ethics Recognition – annual event honoring businesses with the

MEMBERSHIPS

Members enjoy the benefits of public recognition, priority notification, and varying discounts for all Forum events.

Annual memberships are available for businesses ($175), not-for-profit corporations ($100), and individuals ($35).