A celebration of the legacy of St. Francis de Sales, Patron of DeSales University

Missionary preacher, ecumenical reformer, bishop of Geneva, renowned spiritual director, author of religious classics, founder of a religious order, patron of the deaf ... the exemplary life of ST. FRANCIS DE SALES (1567-1622) remains a spiritual treasure in the history of the Church.

Heritage Week at DeSales University celebrates the legacy of our patron saint by highlighting those facets of his life that correspond with academic areas in which faith and culture continue to be engaged in today's world.

Sunday, January 24
Celebrating the Bishop of Geneva
Mass of St. Francis de Sales
Guest Celebrant and Homilist: Most Reverend John O. Barres, D.D. Bishop of Allentown. Connelly Chapel, 8:00 p.m.

Monday, January 25
Celebrating the Christian Humanist
The Baranzano Society on Bioethics Public Forum
featuring Dr. Marie Hilliard, director of Bioethics & Public Policy at the National Catholic Bioethics Center. White Pavilion, University Center, 7:30 p.m.

Tuesday, January 26
Celebrating the Provost
Law & Society Seminar
“Upholding the Law while Keeping the Faith” featuring The Honorable Joan Orie Melvin, newly elected Justice of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court. White Pavilion, University Center, 7:30 p.m.

Wednesday, January 27
Celebrating the Patron of Journalists
Media Town Hall
discussion on “The Future of Newspapers” featuring publishers Tim Kennedy (The Morning Call) and Martin Till (The Express-Times) White Pavilion, University Center, 7:30 p.m.

Thursday, January 28
Celebrating the Doctor of the Church
The R. Wayne Kraft Memorial Lecture by Monsignor Paul Tighe, secretary of the Pontifical Council for Social Communications (Vatican City) White Pavilion, University Center, 8:00 p.m.

Salesian Center celebrating its 10 year anniversary in 2010

For more information, please call 610.282.1100, ext. 1244, or visit www.desales.edu/salesian