HERITAGE WEEK
A celebration of the legacy of St. Francis de Sales, Patron of DeSales University

Missionary preacher, ecumenical reformer, bishop of Geneva, renowned spiritual director, author of religious classics, founder of a religious order, patron of the deaf ... the exemplary life of ST. FRANCIS DE SALES (1567-1622) remains a spiritual treasure in the history of the Church.

Heritage Week at DeSales University celebrates the legacy of our patron saint by highlighting those facets of his life that correspond with academic areas in which faith and culture continue to be engaged in today’s world.
