

Financial Aid Information Physician Assistant Class of 2026

Any scholarships and grants listed on the College Financial Plan are renewable for eight semesters (four academic years), provided the student maintains satisfactory academic progress as outlined in the University's Undergraduate Course Catalog. Undergraduate students may also be eligible to borrow Federal Direct subsidized and/or unsubsidized loans. At the end of the Spring 2025 semester, students with graduate with a bachelor's degree. Students may begin to take graduate-level courses in the 2024-2025 academic year prior to earning a bachelor's degree.

The start of the Summer 2025 semester marks the beginning of student's eligibility for graduate federal financial aid. Students may borrow from Federal Direct unsubsidized loans, Graduate Direct PLUS loan and/or Alternative (private) student loans.

Years 1 - 4 Undergraduate Financial Aid Fall 2021 - Spring 2025

Financial Aid

- Scholarships (merit awards)
- Grants (need-based awards)
- Federal Direct Subsidized and/or Unsubsidized Loans

Tuition 2021-2022

$39,500*

*Tuition projections are based on estimated costs for AY'21-22. Tuition rates for the summer of 2022 and beyond are pending Board approval.

-----May 2025: Graduate with bachelor's degree-----

Year 5 Graduate Financial Aid Summer 2025, Fall 2025, Spring 2026, and Summer 2026

Financial Aid

- Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan:
   $10,250 per semester
- Grad PLUS loan and/or private loan

Tuition

$14,000 per semester*

*Tuition projections are based on estimated costs for AY'21-22. Tuition rates for the summer of 2022 and beyond are pending Board approval.